During the winter months, Chapter #20 seems to go a bit dormant with the normally cold weather and the lack of major events taking place. The only event the chapter participated in was the Special Olympics Winter Dinner where we volunteer to help check in the people attending the dinner and sell raffle tickets. This event is coordinated by Pat Pudetti and this year the volunteers were Jack Prinzing and his son, Ralph Pascale, Rosemary Rossi Williams, Dick Oleksyn, Kathy Ryan and her husband Steve Mortimer, Missy Swald-Camman, Pat and I. The event was a little under attended and Pat explained that, with the new structure of the Special Olympics, more help is needed now more than ever.

The Executive Committee took a night and updated the Policies and Procedures Manual, and the updates will be given out at the February 6th board of directors meeting. It is important to us that all of the information be documented so there is a smooth flow of transition in April. In addition, we are looking into having all of this information available to all members on the website www.VVA20.org (more to come on this).

This month at the board meeting we will be discussing the Jerry Popen Scholarship and the possibility of making that a permanent scholarship at RIT where Jerry attended college, so that his memory and the memory of chapter #20 can live on long after we are gone. Also, at this month’s board meeting we will be finalizing the 2006-2007 budget.

The chapter membership database list is now being tested and should be available for use on the website for members only access for minutes of meeting and financials. Dave Edmunds is working with Logisoft to complete the final details. Also we are working on getting additional licenses to give more access to the chapter in the future and repairing the current info@vva20.org email address. This will also allow for easier updates to the systems and databases going forward.

The chapter TV show with ICAT in Irondequoit has completed 6 shows, and show 7 and 8 will be done on February 8th. The two shows will feature the Cares Representatives from the Canandaigua VA and WWII and Korean War Veterans. The final 2 shows will be 9 Gene Clark on Veterans Education and 10 Dr. Terry Julian from the Batavia VA & the Jack Wisby PTSD Center. Once all the shows are complete we will have CDs made for borrowing and to give to other agencies to help veterans in the 5 county area surrounding Rochester. It is also hoped that all of the other town’s cable channels will take the show and air it in their locations.

As my term as president comes to an end, I meet it with mixed emotions. Sad because I will miss working with the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors, who over the past 4 years have been exceptional! I have been blessed with people who put veterans before themselves and expect nothing in return. I want to thank all of them for their support and loyalty. I am also excited at looking into the future and being able to work on special projects to help veterans without having to deal with the stressors of being the president. I will be starting my internship for my masters at the VA in Canandaigua on February 13th and will be working on a project on PTSD. Lastly, I have become disenchanted with a small group of people who seem to always see the glass as half empty, who find it necessary to make personal attacks without facts or the knowledge behind situations, and who seem to look for the negative rather than focusing on our goals. It is truly amazing to me how angry and immature some people can be, and how long they can hold on to their anger. We are a tough lot, who have had to deal with a great deal of anger that seems to come from our past. I truly pray to God each day that he will help all of us to find a way through these struggles. I personally seek God’s help every day for his knowledge and guidance, as I know the tough times are those times when we learn the most about being closer to him. I wish you all well and I hold no malice toward any of you.

I ask you all to keep all our members, their families and all of our soldiers overseas in your prayers and, as always God Bless.

Nelson
Marching Unit
Ray Melens, Commander

Another parade season is quickly approaching again. Parade invitations are already starting to come in. Looks like right now our first parade of the 2006 parade season will be the Lilac Parade on Saturday, May 13th. If anyone knows of or would like to have the Marching Unit participate in any particular parade, just ask them to send us an invitation before our annual meeting in April. I will report the actual meeting date in next month’s article. So start to get your uniforms ready. Parade season will be here before we know it!

At this month’s Honor Guard meeting I will take the names of those that wish to volunteer to be considered for the trip to Washington, D.C. in September for National POW/MIA Recognition Day ceremonies. You must be present at this meeting to put your name in. The Honor Guard meets at 7:00 P.M., upstairs at IRA, before the membership meeting. Those chosen for the trip will be announced at the June meeting.

Members of the Marching Unit will again this year be getting together at Gunny’s on N. Greece Rd. for a little celebrating of St. Patrick’s Day. All members, friends, groupies, roadies, fans, etc. are welcome to join us. We start to gather around 11:30 A.M. All are welcome to join us. I must remind everyone that the chapter or Marching Unit does not pay for this. You must pay your own way. Hope to see many of you on Saturday, March 11th for some fun and camaraderie.

I guess this is as good a spot as any to announce my candidacy for the Board of Directors. My bio will appear in the next issue. Whether you vote for me or not, I strongly encourage everyone to be sure to come to the April meeting and vote for the candidates of their choice. This is a perfect time to voice your opinion by voting for those that you want to represent you and the chapter.

I will report on the Marching Unit Dinner Dance in next month’s BTL.

Until next month............AT EASE!!!!!!!!

POW/MIA
Gail Bologna-Melens, Co-ordinator

The number of missing and unaccounted for from the Vietnam War is now 1,808. The numbers keep going down and we do get the names and states of some of the repatriated. It is too bad that the number will never be a big fat 0. But I am happy that they keep declining.

Four Army helicopter crew-member’s bodies were recovered December 5, 2002. They were listed as KIA/BNR (killed in action/body not recovered) March 20, 1971.
Candidates for Chapter 20 and AVVA offices are invited and encouraged to submit a statement for publication in the April issue of Between the Lines. This can include biographical information and/or your ideas for what you would like to accomplish, or anything else you would like people to know as they vote. Submit your statements by March 9 to the VVA office or email to:

bruceimcdaniel@earthlink.net

I am gathering addresses of homes and businesses that fly the POW/MIA flag every day. I intend to send them a letter thanking them for their support of the POW/MIA issue. If you have such a person or place in your neighborhood please send me their name and address so that they can receive a letter.

They were identified August 30, 2005, and all four families recently accepted the results. They are listed as MAJ Jack L Barker of Georgia, CAPT John F Dugan of New Jersey, SP4 William E Dillender of Florida and PFC John J Chubb of California.

An Air Force officer listed as MIA was also identified and returned to his family for burial with full military honors. He is COL Eugene D Hamilton of Opelika, Alabama. On Jan 31, 1966, he was flying an armed reconnaissance mission over North Vietnam when his F-105D ‘Thunderchief’ was hit by ground fire over Ha Tinh Province.

The monthly flag give-away is still going on. Every month members can put their names in the jar for a drawing at the meeting. A 3x5 American flag and a 2x3 POW/MIA flag are given to the recipient to fly at their home or work or other places.

Window decals are available at the monthly meeting. Please place one on your vehicle window to help keep this issue in the public eye. If we don’t REMEMBER— who will?

Veterans Incarcerated Committee Report
Ron Trovato

We recently heard from Jeff Langnese, outside coordinator of the Vietnam Veterans Group, San Quentin State Prison, California (Chapter #563). Mr. Langnese thanks us for sending in Between the Lines and was glad to hear about our contacts with Chapter #489 at the Attica Correctional Facility. He noted also that veterans at San Quentin have a smaller self-help group patterned after those that veterans incarcerated in N.Y. State have established. They apparently are dealing effectively with a wide range of veteran’s issues including P.T.S.D. It was suggested that a group of veterans from the local Vets Center come in to San Quentin to become part of the prisoners’ self-help efforts there and we wish them the best of luck.

Sure sounds like the V.V.G.S.Q. is going in the right direction. Congrats, too, on their recent donations to the Holiday Toy Program ($500), the Children’s Hospital Cancer Center ($100) and ($300) to “MOMS,” an organization of veterans’ mothers who make up care packages for troops overseas -- Great job, guys!

Got a Christmas card from Chapter #190, the Holman Vets Group, Atmore, Alabama signed by all the guys there. And a tip of the hat to Craig McLaren, President of Chapter #190, who continues to publish his National Incarcerated Veterans Network Newsletter. Keep up the good work there.

We also heard from Al Blanche, President of Chapter #489 at Attica. We hope to get Ken Moore in there for a future General Membership Meeting to share information regarding Hepatitis-C. Our applications for registered volunteer status there are presently being processed.
BETWEEN THE LINES

O’REILLY: The O’Reilly Factor is on! Tonight on the Impact Segment, a fair and balanced exclusive interview with legendary Vietnam Veteran, Ronbo, who has been missing in action for several years. Where has he been? What has he done? What female Senator from New York has he been stalking?

RONBO: Hey, I thought this was the Implant Segment where we get to talk about Pamela Anderson’s new...

O’REILLY: (Pointing finger.) Now, my sources have disclosed that over the past few years you have done little, except lay around and watch TV, eat Cheese Whiz and read coloring books, causing your mind to atrophy and... (looking to stage hands) ...can one of you please wake him up?!

RONBO: (Thrashing around.) Uh... oh...get off me...huh? Oh sorry, this chair is just so comfy! And I love this footstool!

O’REILLY: Al Gore needed a job. Now, where were we? Oh yes, this total lack of stimulation has caused you to disengage from reality and...

RONBO: Not at all, Geraldo. My mind is as sharp as it was when I was discharged from the army in 1971. You don’t make basic trainee after three years without having some things go your way. And my recent life is not without accomplishments. I just received the one-year safe driver award from GEICO. Nobody can ever take that away.

O’REILLY: (Vein in forehead visibly throbbing.) Now, on your business card, after your name, you have the letters ED. What type of degree is that?

RONBO: Actually it’s more of a condition. Erectile Dysfunction.

O’REILLY: (Coughing nervously.) You too? Now, to get back...in an era where folks like Joe Paterno and Marv Levy work in their 80’s, at age 55 you have no employment record.

RONBO: (Proudly) I’m still working on my resume. And my Army training didn’t qualify me for many civilian jobs. Remember, my MOS was 96B2L94 – Carnival Ride Operator.

O’REILLY: (Opening bottle of JD on camera) Admit it, Ronbo - you have had your share of problems.

RONBO: Hey, I smoked my fair share of LS of D back in the 60’s. Granted, I frittered away a lot of years following the Cowsills around the country. And it was no cakewalk being Courtney Love’s personal trainer.

O’REILLY: (Grudging admiration seeping into his voice.) What are your chances of ever working a real job?

RONBO: About the same as Barney Frank watching your back in a bar fight. Last place I tried working for just didn’t last, “Happy Jihad One Way Truck Rental.” Turnover there was something fierce.

O’REILLY: Your life has been pretty much a total loss. Any regrets?

RONBO: (Wistfully) Yeah. I probably shouldn’t have spent all those years digging tunnels into Mexico. Go figure. And I admit I was wrong to give Kerry that wedgie before the third debate.

O’REILLY: I’ll give you the last word.

RONBO: (Spooning Cheese Whiz into his mouth.) Can you hook me up with Katie Couric?
Late November of last year, Jeff Farrington of Victor Specialties was working with the members of the 25th Anniversary Committee of Chapter 20 on a project to create the first ever Chapter 20 window decals. After 5 month of dealing with software and design problems Jeff was confident that we had finally found the perfect decal. Everything was set to go into full production in the early weeks of December. Unfortunately the Committee members were notified that Jeff unexpectedly passed away on the 12th of December from an unknown heart condition. He left behind a loving family and many close friends.

In the short time that we knew and spoke with Jeff, he showed us that he was a man of distinction. And his contribution to this chapter will always be remembered.

Command and Control
Central: CCC

CCC was formed by MACV-SOG in late 1967, located in Kontum and operated in the Tri-border junction of Laos, Cambodia, and Vietnam. The primary mission of CCC (like the other Command and Control Centers) was strategic reconnaissance gathering.

Cross border (over the fence) operations were invariably code named in the interests of secrecy, with missions into Laos being known as “SHINING BRASS” and later after 1968 as “PRAIRIE FIRE”. Missions into Cambodia were also given code names and were initially known as “DANIEL BOONE” and later in the war as “SALEM HOUSE”.

The combat elements associated with CCC were used to reinforce and assist in the recon mission. The first MACV-SOG recon teams were initially called “SPIKE TEAMS”, each team (depending on what book you read!) consisting of 3 US SF personnel and 9 indigenous personnel. CCC fielded approximately 30 recon teams which were named after US States.

Recon teams that got into difficulty (stepped in shit!) could call for assistance from US led reaction forces known as “HATCHET FORCES”, these were of platoon size and consisted of 5 US SF and about 30 indigenous personnel. “HATCHET FORCES” could also be used for ambushes as well as reinforcing recon teams when needed. Two or more “HATCHET FORCES” combined were termed as a “HAVOC” or “HORNET” force. Full SOG companies were called “SLAM” companies, Search, Location, Annihilation, Monitor (or Mission). Of these CCC had 4, A, B, C, and D, and used US paid indigenous personnel recruited and paid for by MACV-SOG.

The recon teams focused their energies on specific areas of the trail in order to obtain current up to date information on construction, troop movements, supplies, etc. This information was often gained at great risk to the recon teams and transmitted to OP-34 ground studies branch at SOG HQ for inclusion into the daily SITREP reports. Relatively lightly armed the recon teams were not designed to slug it out in a pitched battle with the enemy. Instead they relied on moving without being detected. If in the event they were compromised (detected) then the ability to break contact quickly and evade the enemy was of paramount importance.

CCC was deactivated in March 1971, but in reality was altered in name only to TFAE2. A year later in March 1972 the whole organisation was supposedly terminated but covert missions involving SF troops continued, and actually increased. The US forces probably wearing black baseball caps and non related SF insignia on their uniforms. Many of the SF personnel lost after the official withdrawal date are among the POW/MIA discrepancy cases.

Most if not all of the recon teams had their own insignia's made up in the form of cloth patches in order to enhance team unity and esprit de corps. As most of the indigenous personnel couldn't speak English, graphics (ie Tigers, skulls, snakes, hatchets, etc) were more symbolic to them and easily understandable than words.
