VVA Chapter 20 - Proud of our past...

...Moving into the future.

PG. 4
Euchre Party
The end of November and the first couple weeks of December have been busy for me. Let me start by wishing a belated Happy Thanksgiving, a Merry Christmas and a Happy and safe New Year. The last week of November I sat in on the Finance Committee as they prepared the budget for 2007. As all of you are aware, this year the spending will be tight because of low profits from the thrift store and, mostly because of new laws, the car business profits are low. It was a hard process trying to spread the money around. On December 3rd the Board of Directors approved the proposed budget with some changes and at the January membership meeting we will review it with all in attendance.

We have been approved as a designated donor for the United Way in Rochester. Our number for donations is 2458, so please try to find it in your heart to help the chapter by designating your contributions to 2458. I’m in the process of filing for the State program that is basically the same and will pass along that information as it is received.

December 1st through the 10th we had a table set up at the Mall at Greece Ridge Center for VetsConnect providing information to all the veterans as to the benefits due to them. From the amount of information that was taken I think it was a great success.

On December 8th and 10th, I traveled to Auburn and Attica correctional facilities with Chapter 20’s own Ronbo Trovato. I could hardly believe that I’m up at 5:00 AM, in a blinding snowstorm that you could hardly see your hand in front of your face, hearing all the Ronbo stories from Nam. I thought to myself, How dedicated does one have to be to put yourself thru this? All kidding aside, it was a great trip and the vets in Auburn again did an outstanding job knitting scarves, mittens and hats for the kids in Schools 9 and 33 in Rochester. In all, we got two large bags for them. Saturday we went early again to Attica to meet with Chapter 205. It was a great meeting. Both Ron and I addressed the Chapter and spent some time chatting with the inmate veterans.

Again this month I did my monthly TV show on R News, Channel 9, and the topic was our efforts with VetsConnect. I’ll never be a Matt Lauer, but I’ll keep the show going to spread information that’s important to our veterans.

Till next month - Stay safe and see you at the next membership meeting!

Together then together now
Ken Moore, President

The VetsConnect table at the Mall at Greece Ridge Center.

Don’t miss these upcoming meetings!

Please come and support your Chapter!

All meetings are held at the Ira Jacobson American Legion Post, 90 St. John’s Park, unless otherwise noted.

VVA Chapter 20 Board Meeting Schedule
Veterans Incarcerated
Ron Trovato, Chair

The Vietnam Veterans Group at San Quentin is doing well and recently donated $500 to the Swords to Plowshares Program (transitional services for vets) and $1,000 to their Christmas Toy Program. They have a new prison administrator there who limited the group’s food sales fundraisers, so the guys are making adjustments.

Craig McLaren and the vets at Chapter 190 in Atmore, Alabama, keep in regular contact and sent a copy of the agenda for the Veterans Day Program there, which was well attended. As always, thanks for copies of The Eagle Speaks newsletter.

I especially want to thank all the officers and members of Chapter 190 for the Eagle Award which they awarded to yours truly. It reads “For Loyal Support, Patriotism for our Nation’s Military Forces and Outstanding Leadership for our Incarcerated Veterans Chapters.” The wife picked up a nice frame and it’s hanging on my wall at home. I really appreciate it, guys.

We have heard from Wayne Cotrell, President of Chapter 603 (Groveland) thanking us for our flag donation to the chapter there. According to staff advisor Jim Strollo, the chapter had a special Veterans Day observance there, but circumstances prevented them from inviting in outside guests. No problem guys, and good luck on the proposed veterans phone card program.

On December 8, 2006, Ken Moore and I traveled to Auburn to attend the culmination of their annual donation drive. Chapter President Bobby Ahalt handed out checks to several Auburn agencies that assist the poor and Chapter 20 was the beneficiary of about half of the 270 hats and scarves that the Crochet Platoon made this past year. All the vets at Auburn that worked all year long to make these items for kids were in attendance and received a standing ovation from the many guests present. Refreshments were served and it was good to catch up with the vets there and enjoy the hospitality. In 1989 I attended the 3rd or 4th annual donation drive giveaway so that gives you some idea of the guys’ commitment and the work involved in keeping this running so smoothly. Always the proudest day for Chapter 205.

Continuing my master plan of working Kenny Moore like a student intern, I picked him up the next morning and drove to meet with Chapter 489 at the Attica Correctional Facility where we had a real productive meeting. We met with Chapter President Jackie Adams and about 15 chapter members. Chapter Secretary Phil Glazer was kind enough to allow us to address the guys there and devote a majority of the meeting to benefits questions which Kenny Moore was able to provide answers for. We thank Chapter 489 for their hospitality and we look forward to our next visit on January 6th. After the meeting, Staff Advisor Sgt. Schiefer took us for an impromptu tour of the facility before completing the paperwork and photos for becoming registered volunteers there.

Please help Chapter 20 by designating your contributions to 2458.
Once again the autocratic Ken Moore Era is upon us and we all must shake off the dust of the old and embrace the new. It was with mixed feelings that I cleaned out my files at home and disposed of much old VVA correspondence before the wife powerwashed the room. These files contained letters documenting much of the heretofore unknown history of one Chapter 20 member. Yes, there is much that goes on behind the scenes that the membership blissfully never knows about that makes our chapter effective, prosperous and away from Grand Jury action. I share the following letters with our readers as a demonstration of my loyalty, commitment and dedication to VVA.

Mr. Trovato,
Our staff has reviewed your thesis and have concluded that the behavioral modification technique you have proposed will only cripple patients. It would appear that the concept of “Tough Hate” was only arrived at, as your footnotes indicated, after a night of binge drinking with Mr. Pat Pudetti and is of no clinical value. Please call for an appointment.

I am at a complete loss for words so I will be blunt. Your patent request for undercoating on microwave ovens is denied. Ditto for “muffler bearings.” Please find enclosed a small donation for Chapter 20 to be used on any committee except yours.

Sincerely,
B. McKnight

Dear Mr. Trovato,
I have examined your resume at length and the only job you are remotely qualified for is that of a piñata. Are you available to work afternoons? Additionally, after reviewing your job skills section, I can only suggest that someone water you twice a week.
Thank you for allowing us to be of service and have a nice day.

Very truly yours,
Naomi Goodbody

Dear Mr. Trovato
We are returning your expose’ photograph of Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi, which we refuse to publish. On closer inspection, it would appear that you taped a cutout of Ms. Pelosi’s head onto the body of Pamela Anderson. Perhaps “Soldier of Fortune” would be a more appropriate venue.

Dear Mr. Trovato,
Please be advised that the Miss Nude Universe will not be able to run for Chapter 20’s Vice Presidential position. Our investigators have determined that a Mr. Geno Lenyk is already on the printed ballots and your ploy is just another cheap bait and switch tactic.
We are also returning the room key from the Whistling Turtles Motel.

We have filled your prescription for “Prolongo” an industrial strength combination of Viagra, Cialis, Levitra and tequila. Side effects may include blurred vision, stuttering, sterility, swimmers ear, loose lung, cooties, pyromania, drinker’s remorse and bowel projectiles. Dear Mr. Trovato,

Five years ago I read your book about my 2000 Presidential Campaign, “Flat Lined.” I have read your newest biography of myself entitled “Obsessed by Failure,” in which you favorably compare me to Jimmy Carter, Scott Norwood, New Coke, the 1978 Red Sox and the Captain of the Titanic. Please find enclosed a copy of the recently issued restraining order.

Dear Mr. Trovato,

We are returning your script for a new show based around your fictional character “Dr. Colon,” a forensic proctologist. As an author you are obviously constipated with old ideas, bound up with trite clichés and will probably never be able to plow through the writers blockages and log jams you so apparently labor under.

"Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country."
- President John F. Kennedy (Inaugural Address, 1961)

In the aftermath of September 11, 2001, this famous quote by President Kennedy rang true in hearts of thousands of American men and women who responded by joining the military.

Unfortunately, it is becoming increasingly apparent that many of those who answered this call to duty are now suffering a war of a different sort—an internal war of nightmares and flashbacks related to their wartime experiences:

- Of more than 5 million veterans treated in VA facilities in 2004, 48,783 were from the fighting in Afghanistan and Iraq.

- According to a 2005 article in USA Today, of the 244,054 veterans of Iraq and Afghanistan already discharged from service, 12,422 have sought counseling for readjustment problems and symptoms associated with posttraumatic stress disorder.

- A report by the Government Accountability Office indicates the VA “does not have the sufficient capacity to meet the needs of new combat veterans while still providing for veterans of past wars...”

- At the Veterans Outreach Center, we are already seeing an increase in demand for counseling and support services—but we need your help to meet this demand.

- Please join us: Stand Up for Veterans! Make a contribution through the 2007 United Way Donor Choice Program so that we can continue Serving Those Who Serve U.S. Designate Veterans Outreach Center and include our ID number—1119. The M274 Mechanical Mule

The M274 Mechanical Mule was developed to replace both the 1/4-ton and 3/4-ton 4 X 4 vehicles in infantry and airborne infantry battalions. It needed to weigh less than 750 pounds and carry a cross-country load of 1,000 pounds plus a driver.

Willys developed a pilot model in the 1950s which could carry 850 pounds on improved roads with 2-wheel or 4-wheel drive. The driver’s seat could be removed, and the steering column moved to accommodate more cargo.

Each wheel had shackles for lifting by helicopter or dropping by parachute. If it landed upside-down, it could be turned over and still be driven away.

The Mule’s versatility was amazing. It could be fitted with cable reels for signal use, used as a boat for river crossing, equipped with recoilless rifles and later TOW missiles.

Very popular with both the Army and Marine Corps in Vietnam, most Mules only hauled equipment and troops.

Mules were designed to keep pace with foot soldiers, but by 1978 the Army determined that the M274 was simply too old to keep. With the HMMWV (High Mobility Multi-purpose Wheeled Vehicle) taking the place of the venerable jeep, the Mule was retired from active service.

In 2000, the value of the M274 Mule was found once again in the form of the M-Gator. The M-Gator was an off the shelf, four-wheel drive platform that serviced troops in combat as well as the M274 served thirty years before.

Six varieties of Mules were made by Willys, Bowen-McLaughlin-York, Baifield Industries & Brunswick Corp.
